

Habitat
for Humanity®
Vail Valley

2016 Board of Directors

Bret Hooper, *President (Eagle, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

After earning his B.S. degree in Business Administration at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Bret began his career at a regional investment bank in Virginia. He returned to his home state of Colorado in 1993 and has over 20 years of experience as a banker in Eagle County.

Bret has been active on our Finance Committee since 2007. His previous nonprofit experience includes serving for the United Way of the Eagle River Valley including president, treasurer and campaign chairperson. He is also a former board member for the Eagle Valley Chamber of Commerce and a past consultant for Junior Achievement.

Bret, and his wife Christina, have three children. Bret's favorite activities include telemark skiing, mountain biking, camping and rafting with his family.

Stuart Green, *Vice President (Edwards, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2017)

Stuart Green is a 30 year valley resident and an owner of the Aprisent Financial Group, a local wealth management firm. He has an MBA and is also a Certified Financial Planner™. He has served on the Habitat Finance Committee for the last 7 years. In that capacity, he helped develop a planned giving program for the organization. In addition, he is a board member of the Eagle Valley Family Assistance Fund and serves on the finance committee of Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains.

He and his wife Becka have 2 children, Lara and Colin, who were born and raised in the valley. His outside interests include tennis and skiing.

Amanda Precourt, *Vice President (Edwards, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

After graduating from Stanford University, Amanda started her career in the electronic brokerage world as a Marketing Manager at Charles Schwab & Co. and Morgan Stanley as Senior Marketing Manager and led a massive marketing campaign for their online web trading platform. Amanda relocated to Denver in 2000, and worked for Prima Capital. After September 11th, Amanda decided to get out of the dot com world and worked for the Humane Society as an Event Manager. Ultimately, Amanda went back to school and received a Master's in Real Estate and Construction Management. Fixer-uppers and property management have since become her new career.

Amanda also began pursuing her philanthropic dreams including Habitat for Humanity. After spending 3 weeks building in Chile and volunteering here at home, Amanda co-chaired the successful Vail Home Partnership which raised enough money to fund the first LEED certified home in Fox Hollow. In addition, Amanda helped create the International Program at Habitat Vail Valley in 2009 and has personally led several of these annual build trips.

Rob Wilson, *Vice President (Eagle, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

Rob Wilson is the Pastor of Eagle River Presbyterian Church in Avon, CO where he has served as pastor since 2005. Rob was born and raised in Spokane and graduated from Whitworth College with a major in Psychology and a minor in Sociology. After working in the Seattle area as a Case Manager for chronically mentally ill adults, Rob felt called to ministry. He attended Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary for one year before taking three years to work as the Director of Youth Ministries at Grace Presbyterian Church in Littleton. He then returned to Louisville Seminary for two more years in order to complete his Master's of Divinity degree after which he was ordained as a Presbyterian Minister. Rob's first call was to the Community Presbyterian Church in Wilbur, Washington where he served for over 6 years before moving to the Vail Valley. Rob currently serves on Denver Presbytery's Committee on Ministry, the Vail Valley Cares board and Habitat Vail Valley's board.

Rob has been married to Barbara since 1995 and they have four children.

Tim LyBarger, Treasurer
(Edwards, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2019)

A second generation resident of the Vail Valley, Tim LyBarger serves the local community with more than 25 years of banking experience, namely in real estate finance. Tim has been a member of Habitat Vail Valley's finance committee since 2012.

Other past board involvement include Colorado Venture Capital Authority, Community Partnership for Child Development and March of Dimes. Tim earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Adams State College and is a graduate of Pacific Coast Banking School at University of Washington. He tries to live his life based on the formula...faith, family, friends and fun. Tim is a sports enthusiast and values time with his high school sweetheart, best friend and spouse, and four loving children.

Kathy Chandler-Henry
(Eagle, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

Kathy Chandler-Henry was elected to the seat of Eagle County Commissioner in November 2014. She's a fourth-generation Coloradan with a love of open spaces, air, water and land quality and the western values of independence, hard work and community service. Kathy is the county's representative to the Water Quality Quantity Committee (QQ), Ruedi Reservoir Water and Power Authority, NWCCOG Economic Development District Board of Directors, and Lake Creek Affordable Housing Corporation.

Kathy worked for Colorado Mountain College for more than 20 years and is a small business owner of Black Diamond Research and Brush Creek Electric. Her education, training, work history, personal background and knowledge of the county all contribute to her passion for county government and public service.

In addition to being a small business owner, facilitator and former teacher, she served as vice-chair of the Home Rule Commission in 2006 and has volunteered extensively in local elections and community organizations. She and her husband raised their children in Eagle County and are grateful every day for the opportunity to live and serve here.

Lisa Dennis
(Avon, Colorado & London, England; Term expires 12/31/2016)

Lisa Dennis grew up in California. She spent much of her childhood in Colorado visiting both sets of grandparents and extended family. Lisa attended California State University Long Beach and moved to Britain in 1982 with her former husband, Ron Dennis. They spent 27 years building the McLaren Formula One Team.

Lisa is an avid fund raiser and has spent many years chairing a variety of events and fundraising activities. In 2013, one of the events, FaceBritain, designed for The Prince's Foundation for Children & the Arts, won the Arts and Business Award and received 2nd place in the Civil Society Awards.

Lisa has had a home in the Vail Valley since 1995 and now lives here most of the year. She is passionate about helping this community and is eager to help expand the impact of Habitat Vail Valley. Lisa enjoys skiing, golfing and sport shooting and has three children.

Terry Halverson
(Arrowhead, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

Terry Halverson has lived in the Vail Valley since 1980 and is the former President of FirstBank of Avon and former CEO of Millennium Bank. Since retirement, Terry has served on the boards of several local non-profit organizations.

Terry and his wife Tina have four children and live in Arrowhead. Terry enjoys playing golf, hiking, and biking.

Laureen Hopkins
(Avon, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2016)

Laureen Hopkins has been a premier Interior Designer in the Vail Valley since 1998. Her creativity, innovation and bold vision have made Laureen successful in both residential and commercial Interior Design work in the Vail Valley and beyond.

Laureen appreciates giving back to our community. She serves on the Executive Committee for the Vilar Performing Arts Center as well as the Vilar Guild and Beaver Creek Club Board. Laureen has been involved with Habitat Vail Valley since 2000. She has served as an Ambassador and on the Special Events Committee for several years. Laureen has been instrumental in encouraging others to donate their time, resources and furniture to the Habitat ReStore.

Laureen is an avid skier, golfer and cyclist. She enjoys participating in charity golf and cycling events and now brings her enthusiasm and creativity to the Board of Directors.

Dick Michaux
(Vail, Colorado & Washington D.C.; Term expires 12/31/2018)

Dick retired from AvalonBay Communities (NYSE: AVB) as its Chairman and CEO. Previously he was a Group Managing Partner of Trammell Crow Residential responsible for the Mid-Atlantic, North-east and Midwest states.

Since retirement, Dick has served on the boards of several HOAs and non-profit organizations. Dick's interest in Habitat started when building apartments and his company adopted Habitat as its corporate charity. Many of the employees of AvalonBay Communities were involved in the land acquisition, design, approvals and construction of housing. Dick became a resident of the Vail Valley when he retired in 2001 and joined the Board in 2003. Dick and his wife Ginny have a son in Salem, OR and daughter in Washington, DC plus six grandchildren.

Kevin O'Donnell
(Eagle, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2019)

After graduating from the University of Denver in 1996 with a degree in real estate and construction management, Kevin immediately moved the Vail Valley to begin a career with Beck Building Company. He came up through the ranks at Beck, starting as a project manager and over the next 18 years oversaw the construction of several large homes and remodels. In 2007, he became an owner in the company and president.

Beck Building Company has long supported Habitat for Humanity and its mission to bring people together to build homes and hope. Kevin joined the Habitat board in 2016, and he intends to continue that support of the organization by drawing on Beck's own resources, talents and deep connections in the Vail Valley's building community. Kevin enjoys spending time with his wife, Jennifer, and their two boys, and he'll jump at the chance to get on the river in his kayak, climb a mountain peak, crank away on his mountain bike or get fresh tracks skiing.

Kristin Kenney Williams
(Avon, Colorado; Term expires 12/31/2018)

Kristin Kenney Williams serves as Vice President of Mountain Community Affairs for Vail Resorts where she oversees government and community relations for its mountain resort communities. Kristin joined the Company in November of 2008 and prior to that, was founder of Commfluent LLC, a Vail Valley-based communications firm specializing in entitlement strategy, campaign planning and community relations.

Kristin was also a founding board member of the Vail Breast Cancer Awareness Group and The Millennium Society and currently serves on the board of SOS Outreach. Kristin is a graduate of Battle Mountain High School and The George Washington University. She and her husband, David, and their three children live in the Vail Valley.