About Habitat for Humanity Vail Valley

Since 1995, Habitat for Humanity Vail Valley has worked to help local families achieve strength, stability and self-reliance through shelter.

A Habitat home is a stabilizing force for a family. Better, affordable living conditions lead to improved health, stronger childhood development and the ability – and financial flexibility – to make forward-looking choices.

Through its efforts more than 87 Habitat homeowners, alongside volunteers, have built or improved a place they can call home. HFHVV has built and renovated homes in Eagle and Lake Counties in the communities of Leadville, Edwards, Eagle and Gypsum. Habitat is currently building six homes per year at Grace Avenue in Gypsum.

About Habitat Vail Valley ReStore

Habitat ReStore Vail Valley is a nonprofit home improvement store and donation center that sells new and gently used furniture, appliances, home accessories, building materials and more to the public at a fraction of the retail price. All proceeds from the store support Habitat for Humanity Vail Valley.

Since 2005, Habitat ReStore Vail Valley has raised more than $1.2 million in funds to support Habitat for Humanity's home building efforts in Eagle County.
