

VOLUNTEERS IN 2023

In 2023, Habitat Vail Valley had a tremendous showing from volunteers! We saw over 600 different volunteers throughout the year that contributed almost 10,000 hours of service to Habitat Vail Valley. If you're interested in helping us double our impact in 2024, please reach out to our volunteer coordinator cassie@habitatvailvalley.org

MEP CONTINUES

Completed MEP Rough In in Building 5

Work on MEP install continued on Phase 9 in Stratton Flats this month. Each of the MEP teams will continue their progress, moving into building 6 next. Soon, we will be ready for insulation, drywall, and then finishes! Exciting steps are around the corner!

CONSTRUCTION TEAM IN FULL FORCE

The construction team is now fully staffed and ready to continue its tremendous progress on Phase 9 in Stratton Flats this upcoming year.

carissa lovelace joins the team as a staff crew leader. Carissa has worked in the Vail Valley in construction project management roles for 3 years now and is excited to join the Habitat team and build her hands on construction skills as a crew leader. She enjoys cooking, yoga, and hiking outside of work!

Sam Farrell is our 3rd AmeriCorps member to join our ranks this build cycle. He comes to us from Buena Vista, Colorado where he worked this past summer as a whitewater photographer. Sam enjoys rock climbing, mountain biking, and hiking in his free time!

BOXES SUCCESSFULLY SET

1st module being set on Adam's Way

In January, the first half of the modules for Adam's Way were successfully set on foundations with our partner, Set Works. Owned by Patrick Dawson, Set Works is generously donating all of their setting services for the 3rd St project. Despite inclement weather and some critical road closures, the team was able to achieve their goal of setting the first phase of boxes in January. Next on the docket will be continuing with earthwork and the remaining foundation installations to be ready to set more boxes later this winter.

Thank You!
